

ESM API may not provide strings for all attributes

Description

When using the ESM API to retrieve servers or cameras, sometimes a field may come back as an integer when the attribute does not say ID.

There is usually no way to know what the integer represents. It should show a string.